

Finding Eldercare

Eldercare Locator

Find help in your community by entering your zip code OR city and state. A public service of the U.S. Administration on Aging connecting you to services for older adults and their families. They can also be reached (800) 677-1116. <https://eldercare.acl.gov/Public/Index.aspx>

National Association for Home Care & Hospice

A non-profit organization that represents 33,000 home care and hospice organizations. This site explains the different types of care available, and provides a service provider locator to help find resources. www.nahc.org

Nursing Home Compare

Provides detailed information about the past performance of every Medicare and Medicaid certified nursing home in the country. www.medicare.gov/NHCompare

Caregiver Support

Caregiver Support Services

A non-profit organization designed to support family & professional caregivers across the lifespan through direct supportive services. Caregiver Support Services is known nationally for setting up benchmark programs and services for family and professional caregivers in the form of offering accessible training, self-advocacy and other pertinent services to support caregivers through the care process. www.caregiversupportservices.com

Family Caregiver Alliance

Supports and sustains the important work of families nationwide caring for loved ones with physical and cognitive impairments Services include assessment, care planning, direct care skills, wellness programs, respite services and legal/financial consultation vouchers.

<http://www.caregiver.org>

Caregiver Stress

This site offers options to care for your senior loved one through helpful caregiver resources, while helping you spot signs of stress on your caregiver journey.

<https://www.caregiverstress.com/>

These resources are made available to you for informational purposes only. Best Care EAP does not recommend or endorse any provider. Parents/guardians should visit any potential providers, verify that they meet all of the all of the criteria you are looking for, and conduct the same level of research that you would normally perform in choosing a dependent care provider before making your final decision.

